*We spoke European,
A new language which we shall all have to learn.*

Aristide Briand

The European Debate Contest is organised by « l'École des Jeunes Orateurs » of Sciences-Po Strasbourg in partnership with the Council of Europe, gathering European schools and universities for the sake of debating while emphasizing the french language .

The French language at the centre of the debate !

This art-of-speech tournament's goal is to favour the dialogue amongst young European speakers upon various European topics.

Thanks to these encounters, we claim to build a common future between students .

Gathering: Students of different nationalities, backgrounds, and horizons, but sharing a common European Spirit.

Thinking: Discuss, share ideas, debate on political, social, cultural or philosophical topics. Everyone can take part in the European think tank.

Listening: The European Debate Contest aims at raising awareness for European topics and for a global enrichment by listening young European from all around the continent. We have a new approach of the art of Rhetoric, strengthened by its European dimension.

Listening is the first step towards a better mutual understanding.

Exchanging: Beyond the relevance of words and their refinement, the European Debate Contest wants to be at the cross-road of the European cultures, aiming for peace and dialog between Peoples.

Strasbourg :

The Contest will take place in a city which symbolises Peace and Reconciliation through the European project. A place for all Europeans to meet, which also houses many European institutions such as the Council of Europe, the European court of Human Rights and the European Parliament.

A unique opportunity : The contest will take place under the authority of a prestigious Jury.

Furthermore, the winner of the event will be offered an internship within the institutions of the Council of Europe in the area he/she wishes.
